He received the injuries in this city, and is said to have a narrow escape from losing his entire foot.

Pleased With Prescott.

Mrs. S. D. Parker, wife of the trustee of D. Levy & Co., after a visit of two months in the city, returned to her home in Los Angeles yesterday, delighted with the country and its summer climate. Mr. Parker is arranging to leave next week, and also carries away a very favorable impression of the city.

Come for Summer.

Mrs. John D. Murphy, accompanied by her son, Eugene, arrived yesterday from Watsonville, Cal., joining Mr. Murphy, who preceded them a few weeks ago. This is their second season in the city, and both are very enthusiastic over the climate, which has effected a substantial improvement in the health of their son. Mr. Murphy is one of the largest fruit growers of the above state and he tends to erect a commodious home here.

Mine Manager Returns.

Dr. C. F. Bowen, general manager of the Humboldt Consolidated Mines company, returned this morning from a brief trip to Pasadena on company affairs, and will leave today for his camp. He is devoting his time to personally directing operations since the strike of rich silver ore was made a few weeks ago, which is said to be the greatest ever known in that section, running to over 500 ounces to the ton, while the vein averages 30 inches in width. Dr. Bowen's return is said to be for the purpose of operating on a more extensive plan than before.

COMES BACK TO

LOOK FOR LOST MINE

(From Thursday's Daily)
Sterner F. Logan, who many years ago was located in this county, following the vocation of miner, returned a few days ago from St. Paul, Minn., and will leave early next week for the Lower Hassayampa country in an effort to locate what he terms is a lost gold mine. He claims to have picked up rich float in the bygone days, and acquiring an insight into clairvoyance in late years, believes he can find the original location, which is represented to be of immense value. He states that several members of his society have been accurately directed to hidden wealth in mines, hence his mission to the old mining district to solve the problem. He has only one arm, losing the other in a premature blast at the old Vulture mine about nineteen years ago.

MORE OFFICIAL DUTIES

(From Thursday's Daily)
County School Superintendent G. W. Persons, on the receipt of a large petition, yesterday appointed E. W. Stephens, of Ferguson valley, as a school trustee of Skull Valley, in place of Kelly Crozier, resigned, and was has gone to California to reside. The appointment of Mr. Stephens meets with general approval, and he will qualify for the new office.

EZRA JACKSON HOME TO STAY.

(From Friday's Daily)

After an absence of nearly ten years in Mexico, on mining business, Ezra Jackson, returned yesterday, and will probably make this section his home again. He was placed in an embarrassing situation for several months in an effort to leave that country, facing the insurrection on one hand, and meeting with trouble in having his financial affairs satisfactorily adjusted on the other. He was located at Oaxaca, 400 miles below the City of Mexico, and for over two months has been slowly edging his way out of that troubled country, finally accomplishing his purpose.
